INITIAL ANNUAL REPORT

October 14

2009

THE INITIAL ANNUAL REPORT OF THE ARKANSAS LOTTERY COMMISSION IS SUBMITTED TO THE LEGISLATIVE OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE FOR REVIEW. THIS SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT REFLECTS THE FIRST 90 DAYS OF OPERATIONS.

ARKANSAS SCHOLARSHIP LOTTERY

Arkansas Lottery Commission

The purpose of the Arkansas Lottery Commission is to oversee the operation of a lottery whose net proceeds will provide scholarships and grants to Arkansas citizens for in-state colleges and universities. Scholarships are to be available for nonprofit, public and private, two-year and four-year colleges and universities. The commission may establish and oversee one or more lotteries to fund the scholarships as well as to fund the commission operations. Arkansas Code Annotated § 23-115-102 and 23-115-801(a) (2) (A).

Under A.C.A. § 23-115-102, the lotteries are to be operated and managed in a manner that:

- Provides continuing entertainment to the public
- Maximizes the revenue generated
- Preserves the integrity and dignity of the process
- Accounts to the public and the General Assembly through reports and audits

The legislation that created the Arkansas Scholarship Lottery (ASL) also established a board of nine members appointed for two, four and six year terms. Three commissioners were appointed by the Governor, three appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and three appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Commissioners:

Chairman: U.S. Rep. Ray Thornton of Little Rock, a former state attorney general, state Supreme Court justice and past president of the University of Arkansas and Arkansas State University.

Vice-chairman: Dianne Lamberth of Batesville, secretary of the Lyon College Board of Trustees and a former instructor at the Batesville college.

George J. Hammons of Pine Bluff, chairman of the department of chemistry at Philander Smith College in Little Rock, who previously served on the Arkansas Racing Commission and the Bradley County Board of Election Commissioners.

Ben Pickard of Beebe, a former director of financial aid at Arkansas State University-Beebe who retired last year as the school's vice chancellor of student services.

Patty Lynn Shipp of Morrilton, a convenience store owner active in education and public service; she serves on the South Conway County Public School Foundation, which raises money to implement technology in schools.

Derrick Smith, a partner in the Mitchell Williams law firm of Little Rock and a member of the American Bar Association, the Arkansas Bar Association and the Pulaski County Bar Association.

Joe White of Conway, a board member of First Security Bank who formerly served on the University of Central Arkansas Board of Trustees.

Mike Malone of Fayetteville, executive director of the Northwest Arkansas Council, an association of regional civic and business leaders in Washington and Benton counties, and a former director of White House operations during the Clinton administrations.

Dr. Susan Ward-Jones of Marion, an assistant professor in the College of Public Health at the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences who serves on the state Board of Health.

The agency referred to as the Arkansas Scholarship Lottery is headquartered at 124 West Capitol Avenue, Little Rock, Arkansas, 72201. Outside of its headquarters, ASL has three Claim Centers which double as regional offices (Jonesboro, Springdale and Camden). Prizes up to $1,000,000 can be redeemed at any of the three regional Claim Centers. Prizes over $1,000,000 must be redeemed at the primary Claim Center which is located in the headquarters building in Little Rock.

Arkansas Scholarship Lottery Staff & Organization:

The Arkansas Scholarship Lottery has a staff of 70 employees under two major departments with 11 primary divisions and three special functions (Sales Training & Retailer Relations, Commission & Legislative Affairs, and Minority & Female Business Enterprise). The Department of Administration includes the Procurement & Compliance Division, Treasury Division, Controller Division, Human Resource Management Division, and the IT Infrastructure Division. The Department of Gaming Operations includes the Legal Division, IT Gaming Division, Security Division, Advertising & Marketing Division, Product Development Division and the Sales Division.

Executive Director Ernie Passailaigue

Ernie Passailaigue is a native South Carolinian, born in Charleston. He graduated from Porter-Gaud School in 1965, earned his undergraduate degree in business administration with an emphasis in accounting from the University of South Carolina in 1969 and received a master's in business administration from The Citadel in 1974. While working in Charlotte, North Carolina as a senior accountant for an international public accounting firm, he was licensed as a certified public accountant in 1971. Passailaigue served as an associate professor of business administration at Charleston Southern University from 1973 to 1988. At the same time, he was managing partner of his own accounting firm in Charleston. Passailaigue is the former owner of the Charleston Royals and Rainbows Professional Baseball Team. In 1988, he was elected to South Carolina Senate and served for 13 years until August 2001, when he resigned to become the executive director of the South Carolina Education Lottery. He has served on a number of boards and committees and has been the recipient of numerous legislative and public service awards.

Mr. Passailaigue currently serves the lottery profession as immediate past president of the North American Association of State and Provincial Lotteries (NASPL), chairman of the Powerball Group and vice president of the Multi-State Lottery Association (MUSL).

Internal Auditor Michael Hyde

Michael Hyde earned his bachelor's degree in accounting from Henderson State University in Arkadelphia, Arkansas in May of 1988. He began his professional career as an auditor with the Arkansas Division of Legislative Audit performing financial audits of various state agencies. After 14 ½ years with the Division, he served as the chief auditor of the Arkansas State Highway and Transportation Department for over 6 years where he was responsible for both internal and external audits. Hyde is a certified public accountant, certified internal auditor, certified information systems auditor, and a certified fraud examiner. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Arkansas Society of Certified Public Accountants, Association of Certified Fraud Examiners, Central Arkansas Association of Government Accountants, Information Systems Audit and Control Association, and Institute of Internal Auditors.

Vice President of Administration Ernestine Middleton

Ernestine Middleton is a native of Washington, D.C. She earned her undergraduate degree in psychology from Howard University in 1973. She then pursued and obtained a master's in public administration with a concentration in management of organizations from Farleigh Dickinson University in 1977. This was followed by a doctorate in theology from Truth Bible College & Seminary in 1999. Middleton served as an adjunct professor of human resource management at Webster University on the military base at Ft. Jackson, Columbia, South Carolina campus. After several years of public service in human resources, directing a program for socially and economically disadvantaged people (CETA) and writing grants for disabled veterans and youth, she started a second career with the South Carolina Education Lottery (SCEL).

Beginning as director of human resources she was promoted to director of internal operations with responsibility for several administrative functions. Middleton served as a planning commissioner for the Town of Blythewood; she is also a cofounder of a non-profit charitable organization, Women United for Service and Sisterhood, and was a school board candidate for Richland County School District II.

Nominated twice by SCEL for the lottery industry's prestigious Powers Award, she graduated from and was a member of the 1st Place Team Winner at Lottery College, an affiliate of the North American Association of State and Provincial Lotteries (NASPL). Middleton has received several professional and civic awards including the Living the Legacy Award. She was featured as an Outstanding State Employee, was a finalist for the SC Chamber of Commerce's HR Professional of the Year, and is a graduate of Leadership South Carolina.

Vice President of Gaming David M. Barden

After receiving his bachelor's degree from the University of South Carolina in 1980, David Barden earned his juris doctorate from Ohio Northern University. He has a distinguished career in public service having served as director of research for the Senate Transportation Committee and assistant director of the SC Department of Public Safety where he administered the day-to-day management and operations of the state's largest public safety and law enforcement cabinet agency. He returned to the Senate where he served as general staff counsel in Senate litigation as well as drafting and amending legislation. He was a member of the start-up team of the South Carolina Education Lottery where he started as the staff attorney and was later promoted to director of marketing and product development, utilizing his legal skills as well as his aptitude for industry marketing. Barden's marketing and advertising work was instrumental in SCEL receiving rewards and recognition for its advertising campaigns.
