BOONE COUNTY PLAYER WINS $100,000, TO USE WINNINGS FOR SCHOOL COSTS

June 27, 2016

LITTLE ROCK—Julia Carlton of Harrison (Boone County) is a $100,000 top prize winner in the Arkansas Scholarship Lottery's Super 7's, a $5 instant game that launched in December 2015. The winning ticket was sold at White Oak Station #1, 1800 Capps Road, in Harrison, with Carlton claiming her prize on Thursday.

This isn't Carlton's first time playing the lottery, but winning this big was definitely a surprise for her. Carlton said she first told her best friend about the win. A student at North Arkansas College in Harrison, Carlton said she plans to use her winnings to finish school.

An estimated $660,640 in prizes remains on this game. The Arkansas Scholarship Lottery is unable to determine how many winning tickets were lost or purchased but still remain unclaimed. All win combinations for each prize amount have been combined into the same prize tier row. Prizes remaining are updated daily.

About the Arkansas Scholarship Lottery

Since Lottery sales started in Arkansas in 2009, the Arkansas Scholarship Lottery has provided more than $573 million for in-state college scholarships to Arkansas students, while players have won nearly $2 billion in prizes -- and Lottery retailers have earned more than $166 million in commissions. More than 92 cents of every dollar of Lottery revenue goes to prizes, scholarships and retailer commissions in the state.
