Fisherman Makes Big Catch With $250,000 Win

Nov. 27, 2017

LITTLE ROCK – Charles Geinosky moved from Illinois to Bull Shoals about a year ago to live his life-long dream of fishing every day. He hooked a really big catch over the weekend when he scratched a Big Money Multiplier instant ticket and won $250,000.

The winning ticket was purchased at OM Sales LLC in Bull Shoals.

“My heart stopped when I saw what I had won,” Geinosky said.

He said he lives only a few blocks from Bull Shoals Lake. His son, daughter-in-law and their 11-month-old granddaughter recently moved to Bull Shoals as well “to get out of Chicago.” Geinosky is retired after working 41 years in the elevator business. He plans to start a college fund for his granddaughter with his winnings.
