LOTTO Jackpot Soars to $1 Million

Feb. 12, 2024

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — The LOTTO jackpot has reached $1 million following its Feb. 10 drawing.

Launched in 2022, LOTTO is one of a few draw games offering Arkansans the opportunity to become lottery-made millionaires. Unlike Powerball® and Mega Millions®, however, LOTTO is played and won only in Arkansas.

“LOTTO is only played and won in Arkansas,” said Eric Hagler, Arkansas Scholarship Lottery executive director. “At $1 million, the jackpot will be life-changing for someone in Arkansas.”

Previous LOTTO winners have claimed jackpots at $2.338 million and $999,000.

LOTTO drawings occur every Wednesday and Saturday at 9 p.m. A player who matches the first six numbers drawn wins the jackpot. Smaller prizes are available for matching two or more digits plus the bonus number. Once the jackpot has been hit, it resets at $250,000.

Tickets are available through licensed Arkansas lottery retailers, the Jackpocket app and Lotto.com. LOTTO tickets cost $2 per play.
