

MurphyUSA Manager Named to Arkansas Scholarship Lottery Advisory Board

LITTLE ROCK (September 30, 2010) -- Felix N. Oliu of MurphyUSA in El Dorado today was named to the Arkansas Scholarship Lottery Retailer Advisory Board by appointment of Chairman Dianne Lamberth, endorsed by a vote of the Arkansas Lottery Commission, the ASL's governing body.

Oliu, Category Manager at MurphyUSA, is responsible for the following merchandise categories at Murphy locations: groceries, salty snacks, health and beauty aids, automotive, lottery, and car wash. He is fluent in Spanish and holds an MBA from Tampa College in Florida. He has served in the gasoline and convenience store industry for 24 years. Previously, Oliu was a Division Manager for MurphyUSA in the Midwest (OH, MI, IN, KY, and IL) and then in the Carolina Division (VA, NC, SC, GA, and TN). He won Murphy's Circle of Stars 2009 award, given to the top two Divisions based on sales performance.

He and his wife of 25 years live in El Dorado, where their daughter attends high school. Their two sons are in college at Florida State University.
